

AOTF 2017 ST. CATHERINE CHALLENGE

SUCCESSFUL FUNDRAISING IDEAS

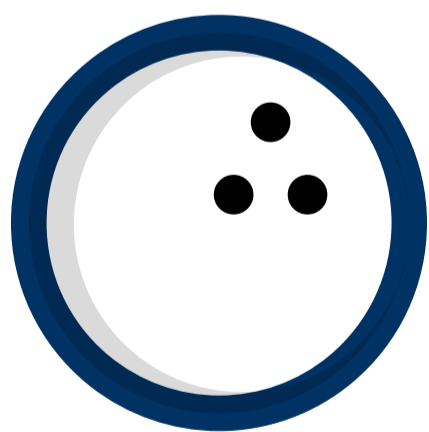

Columbia University had a “Penny War” between Year 1 & Year 2 students. They also reached out to area hospitals that they have relationships with requesting donations.

New York University raised $300 in two days when students emailed their friends, family, and faculty members asking for their support.

Boston University and Tufts University students worked together to host a pizza tasting night at a local restaurant.

Work with your current school events! Rush University secured a portion of fees from vendors at an intercollegiate job fair.

Students at Colorado State University set-up a Bowling Night fundraiser.

Misericordia University hosted a large Yard Sale with all proceeds benefitting the Challenge.

St. Catherine University worked with University of North Dakota to sell custom-made OT shirts.