PASTEL DUNN NAMED NEW DIRECTOR OF FUND DEVELOPMENT

DECEMBER 20, 2013

Bethesda, Maryland – Pastel K. Dunn, CFRE has been named director of fund development at the American Occupational Therapy Foundation (AOTF), effective January 6, 2014.

Ms. Dunn, formerly senior development manager for the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation (CBCF), led fundraising, strategic planning, client cultivation and management for the Resource Development Team. Ms. Dunn previously served as director of development at the National Association of States United for Aging and Disabilities.

Commenting on the appointment, Dr. Charles Christiansen, executive director of AOTF, remarked, “We are delighted to have Pastel Dunn join our development team. The success of any non-profit begins with professionals like Ms. Dunn who can effectively engage others to support our important programs and aims.”

The American Occupational Therapy Foundation is a 501(c) 3 charitable, scientific and educational organization established in 1965. Its mission is to advance research, education, and public awareness for occupational therapy so that all people may participate fully in life regardless of their physical, social, mental or developmental circumstances.
