

Pi Theta Epsilon Executive Committee Nominations for President

Responsibilities

The Pi Theta Epsilon (PTE) President leads the PTE executive committee and is a voting member of the American Occupational Therapy Foundation (AOTF) Board of Trustees.

As an AOTF Board member, a partial list of expectations includes:

- Participate regularly and actively in AOTF Board meetings.
- Serve on at least one AOTF committee.
- Make an annual donation to AOTF and find donors.
- Sign an annual Conflict of Interest statement and Confidentiality Agreement.
- Maintain the confidentiality of Board deliberations.

The PTE President is also expected to:

- Prepare reports of PTE activities to present during the AOTF Board meetings.
- Lead regular PTE executive committee meetings, partner with the national coordinator to prepare agendas and schedule meetings.
- Lead the PTE Annual Business Meeting and assist with planning for PTE-sponsored sessions during AOTA/NBCOT Student Conclave in the fall.
- Lead the PTE Faculty Advisor's Workshop and attend the PTE Alumni Reception during AOTA Annual Conference in the spring.
- Support communications with members via timely completion of Scroll & Pen articles.
- Provide direction and oversight for PTE informational webinars and committee projects.

Eligibility

Candidates for President must have been active members of PTE for a minimum of two years prior to taking office at the PTE Annual Business Meeting.

Time Commitment:

The PTE executive committee meets via conference call on average once a month, with face-to-face meetings during Conclave and Conference to outline events for the year. Electronic and telephone communications are ongoing throughout the year. Meetings may occur more frequently prior to the Annual Business Meeting.

As an AOTF board member, the PTE President is also expected to attend two face-to-face AOTF board meetings a year. One of these face-to-face meetings is underwritten by AOTF and the other would be the responsibility of the PTE President.

Terms of Office:

The president shall serve a two year term, beginning during the Annual Business Meeting. In no case shall any individual serve more than 4 years in the same office and no more than 6 total years on the executive committee.
